What’s the Question?

One of the most important skills of a good detective is questioning. Zengo and O’Malley know WHAT happened when a crime is committed, but they must frame the correct questions to find out how, when and why it happened. How well can you find appropriate questions?

Write an appropriate question for each of the following answers.

Christopher Columbus

Yes

apple pie

50

Jupiter

hexagon

No

Hawaii